

Arts Partnership Lab, Feb 2019

CONNECTIONS: DELEGATE LIST

Jordan Adler Student (Art & Design) Nottingham Trent University jordanadler96@hotmail.com 07969 263022 www.jordanadler96.myportfolio.com
Instagram: @Jordanadlerr_fcp

Dissertation research into how brands can use the platform they have to do good for communities and society
Challenge the capitalism of business and utilise the platform to do good for society and make a change

Andy Barrett Artistic Director, Excavate
andy@excavate.org.uk 07986 594395
www.excavate.org.uk
Twitter: @andykbarrett

We are storytellers who work in and with communities to create things, usually theatre based, around place and identity.
To make theatre that delights and provokes. To unsettle the assumed. To erase the word impact from the arts vocabulary.

Stephen Barker Chief Executive, Creative Quarter Nottingham
stephen@creativequarter.com 0115 710 0107
www.creativequarter.com
Twitter: @CQNottm

The CQ is an economic development agency. Owned jointly by Nottingham Trent University and Nottingham City Council, we encourage the growth of Nottingham's creative economy and support creative businesses.
To be a catalyst and an enabler of Nottingham's future success.

Aaron Belcher Lead/Founder, Sneinton Drama Club
sneintonperformingarts@outlook.com 07539 756774
Twitter: @SneintonC Instagram: @sneintondramaclub

Drama club for 12 - 18 year olds in Sneinton and surrounding areas. To offer affordable drama workshops for those who do not have the funds.

Carrie Blake Outreach & Marketing Assistant, Broadway
c.blake@broadway.org.uk 07910 698706
www.broadway.org.uk

Edward Boott Artistic Director & CEO, Nonsuch
edward@wearenonsuch.com 0115 837 1950
www.wearenonsuch.com
Twitter: @wearenonsuch @boott Instagram: @wearenonsuch

Nonsuch is a theatre company and cultural studio based in Nottingham.
Nonsuch is passionate about creative empowerment, connecting great people to great arts experience and supporting the unlocking of creativity of everyone.

Carys Bowen-Jones Volunteer Coordinator, Backlit Gallery
carysbacklit@gmail.com 0115 837 2426
www.backlit.org.uk

An artist-led gallery and studio space, hosting events and exhibitions.

Ryan Boulton Artist, Designer, Illustrator
Ryan.Boulton1@nottingham.ac.uk
www.boltandbee.co.uk

Gillian Brent Associate Artist, Nottingham Contemporary gill@gillianbrent.co.uk 07947 325946
www.gillianbrent.co.uk
Twitter: @gillbrent Instagram: @gillianbrent

Artist sculptor engaging people with Contemporary art and encouraging participation. Support confidence that art has something to offer everyone.

Sarah Bull Stakeholder Manager, Nottingham City Council
sarah.bull@nottinghamcity.gov.uk 07548 224446
www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk

My role helps to embed the Building Better Opportunities suite of programmes for people with multiple and complex needs. My wider role is to help develop greater connectivity between cross cutting themes (employability/health/creativity/crime/housing) to generate collaborative ways of working. I work closely with D2N2 (Local Enterprise Partnership), I'm based with Nottingham's upper tier local authority at Loxley House.
I want to bring about positive step changes for people living in deprived Wards by working collaboratively across the city.

Karla Capstick Programme Director, Small Steps Big Changes (Citycare)
karla.capstick@nhs.net
Twitter: @CapstickKarla

I lead the Small Steps Big Changes Programme which is a 10 year Big Lottery Funded Programme 'A Better Start' which aims to improve child development outcomes for babies, children aged 0-3 and their parents. The Programme works in Aspley, Bulwell, Arboretum and St Ann's Improve outcomes for babies in communication, speech and language, diet and nutrition and social, emotional and mental health and influence system change.

Natalie Carr Court Manager, Housing and Care 21
natalie.carr@housingandcare21.co.uk 0370 1924859

Nicola Curzon Coordinator Bulwell Arts Festival nicolacurzonarts@gmx.co.uk 07906 638349
www.bulwellartsfestival.com
Twitter: @Bulwellarts

I create art and opportunities for children and adults to empower themselves and their community. Bulwell Arts Festival works closely with partners to develop arts events throughout the year.

We want to make change, so that people feel part of a wider community. I want Bulwell to be a vibrant place where opportunities are made by and for the community.

Gary Davies Artist and Bulwell Connector
garydaviesart@yahoo.com 07597 910027

I work in a variety of media including painting, drawing, stone carving, leatherwork and embroidery.
I'm interested in meeting like-minded people, expanding my horizons, imparting knowledge, pooling resources and working together.

Nikki Disney Drama practitioner, Dramatherapist, Yoga Teacher
AuROARa community theatre, The Party Somewhere Else, Stageweight Wellbeing Nikkiadeldisney@gmail.com 07966 372162
www.Nikkidisney.com www.Thepartysomewhereelse.com
Twitter: @nikkidisney @stage_weight @ROARau @somewhere_party

AuROARa; A community theatre project for all those who identify as women and non-binary. We meet every other Monday.
To increase engagement in the arts and develop a broad range of stories being told utilising a positive network and infrastructure of support.

Lexi Earl Outreach & Engagement Manager, Future Food
Beacon, University of Nottingham lexi.earl2@nottingham.ac.uk 07530 440317 www.nottingham.ac.uk/future-food
Twitter: @UoNFutureFood Instagram: @lexiearl

I work on translating future food research for public consumption. I work with academics to help promote research on food.
Engage people on issues relating to food, looking at the whole food system. Make young people excited about science.

Chris Easton Community Minister, Bestwood Park Church
chris.easton1@googlemail.com 07828 970959

Church that is heavily involved in it's local community and wanting to do more. Potential redevelopment of church which would create a hub for the community.

Julie Ellender Community Together Connector,
Nottingham City Council
julie.ellender@nottinghamcity.gov.uk 07908 489093

Team of 4: 1 admin, 3 community Connectors. Connect anyone 18+ that is socially isolated to events in the community.
Reduce loneliness & isolation, improving health & wellbeing, creating focus and meaningfulness to citizens life while developing friendships and sustaining ongoing connections.

Chelsey Everatt Cultural Development Officer,
Nottingham City Council
chelsey.everatt@nottinghamcity.gov.uk 0115 876 5205
www.whatsonnottingham.com
www.everarts.home.blog
Twitter: @nottm_events. @chelseyeveratt
Instagram: @mynottingham @chelseyeveratt

Inspire people and animate places, with arts and cultural interventions, building partnerships and creating sustainable projects that increase engagement and participation.
Making better places and happier people, whilst providing sustainable career opportunities for creatives to continue and develop their practice.

Rachel Feneley Learning Officer, Drama & Dance, Nottingham Lakeside Arts
rachel.feneley@nottingham.ac.uk 0115 8467180

Andy Franzkowiak Creative Director, Shrinking Space
andy@shrinkingospace.com 07714 333823
www.shrinkingspace.com

Sylvia Gardiner Education Worker, IntoUniversity
sylvia.gardiner@intouniversity.org 0115 978 1224
www.intouniversity.org
Twitter: @IntoUniversity Instagram: @intouniversity

IntoUniversity provides learning centres where young people from disadvantaged backgrounds are inspired to raise their aspirations and supported to achieve these.
We want to see young people with higher aspirations, excited about their future and going on to achieve these.

Yan Gough Over 5s Manager, The Toy Library
yangough@toy-library.co.uk 07383 103374
www.toy-library.co.uk
Twitter: @nottstoylibrary
Instagram: @thetoylibrarysince1978

Support children and families through play
Support children to have a good childhood and reach their full potential.

Rick Hall Founder Associate Ignite!
rick@ignitefutures.org.uk 07801 034732
www.ignitefutures.org.uk
Twitter: @Rick_Hall

Ignite! promotes creativity in learning - We inspire young people and their families to create a better future for themselves.
For them to achieve their full potential in this rapidly changing environment, young people require new skills and attributes.

Nigel Hawkins Head of Culture and Libraries
Nottingham City Council
nigel.hawkins@nottinghamcity.gov.uk 0115 915 5555
www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk

Phillip Hearn Artist, Art by Phil Hearn - Apollo Studios
contact@artbyphilhearn.co.uk 07468 914397
www.artbyphilhearn.co.uk
Twitter: @canadamaple Instagram: @artbyphil5762/

I am an Artist who paints with oils and Acrylics on canvas and I am also the curator of my own home Gallery.

Not only do I want to share my art with the masses, but, I also want to continue to help young and new artists to showcase and exhibit their for the first time and also help with Mental Health, anxiety and confidence issues through art.

Tracey High Chair of Community Group, And Sew it Begins
my.mates@hotmail.co.uk 07525 632919

We are a community arts and crafts group using a wide variety of crafts. I also make leather bags.

To bring art into the community and bring the community together.

Madeline Holmes Creative Director, City Arts
madeline@city-arts.org.uk 0115 950 5251
www.city-arts.org.uk

We develop arts opportunities that bring people together, stimulate change and create stronger, healthier communities.

We believe participation in the arts can enrich and transform people's lives.

Frances Howard Lecturer in Youth Studies
Nottingham Trent University
Frances.Howard@ntu.ac.uk
Twitter: FHowardNG

Youth Studies Lecturer / Researcher interested in learning about (and supporting) how young people and communities work with the arts.

The arts, as an entitlement, have a vital role to play in the lives of children, young people and communities.

Justine Hubbard Community Connector
Nottingham City Council
justine.hubbard@nottinghamcity.gov.uk 07960 420474

Connect Citizens who may be lonely or isolated to Community groups and activities

Less lonely and isolated individuals in the community. Making a difference to the individual's wellbeing.

Irena Hulova Project Officer
University of Nottingham Institute for Policy and Engagement irena.hulova@nottingham.ac.uk 07970 956056
www.nottingham.ac.uk/policy-and-engagement/
Twitter: @UoN_Institute @IrenaHulova

We help the University with their public engagement initiatives such as Wonder 2019 festival.

Extend our reach into communities who don't typically participate. Support the development of new and innovative pieces of engagement.

Karen Hunter Director, Evolve CIC
karenhunter10@outlook.com 07851 292071
Twitter: @evolvenotts

Using sport in a creative way to inspire, educate and mentor people to achieve their best.

Henna Hussain Next Steps Project Worker, The Toy Library
hennahussain@toy-library.co.uk

Patience Ifediora Aspley Ward Labour Councillor
Nottingham City Council
patience.ifediora@nottinghamcity.gov.uk 07983 835930

Vikki Jones Engagement Coordinator, UK Young Artists
vikki@ukyoungartists.co.uk 07514 074693
www.ukyoungartists.co.uk
Twitter: @vikkijjns @ukyoungartists
Instagram: @vikkijjns @ukyoungartists

UK Young Artists is a Nottingham based, national organisation supporting artists aged 18-30, across all disciplines.

Providing opportunities for development, collaboration and celebration.

Steve Lack Community Health Officer, Public Health England
(seconded to Rebalancing the Outer Estates Foundation)
Steven.Lack@phe.gov.uk 07958 658286

I work with the Rebalancing organisation to deliver on the Health and Wellbeing element together with focussing on Community Engagement.

To improve the Health and Wellbeing of people within Nottingham North

Emily Landsborough Read On Nottingham, Campaign Manager
National Literacy Trust
emily.landsborough@literacytrust.org.uk 07729 000048
www.ReadOnNottingham.org.uk
Twitter: @Literacy_Trust

Read On Nottingham is a campaign encompassing a range of programmes and activities to equip children and young people in Nottingham with the literacy skills they need to succeed in life.

Literacy is the foundation for successful, healthy lives.

Chris Lawton Senior Lecturer (Economics) at NTU Skate Nottingham CIC – co-founder/director chrismlawton7@googlemail.com 0775 967 2005
www.skatenottingham.co.uk
Twitter: @ChrisMLawton77 Instagram: @skatenottingham

I teach applied economics, research urban development and the role of creative & cultural assets; I co-run a social enterprise that tries to unlock the educational potential of skateboarding and put Nottingham on the map as an international destination. Delivering a session at Fest of Science & Curiosity with the award winning Long Live Southbank engaging young people in architecture and urban design

I was responsible for the D2N2 research on size/impact of the creative & cultural sector; and wrote the 2014 and 2016 studies for the Nottingham Post on the city's creative assets. Skate Nottingham has engaged more than 200 people in creative education programmes in last 18 months – summarised in this video: <https://youtu.be/3A2fKiYyRzg>

Jules Leadbitter Holistic Therapist, Ilkeston Serenity Holistic Therapies

juleslead@icloud.com 07751 041210

Twitter: @JubilantJoules

Instagram: @Ilkeston Serenity Holistic Therapies

I provide a range of therapies including: Massage, Reiki, MLD, Hopi Ear Candles, Corporate Seated Acupressure
To enhance a person's quality of life by removing knots, strains and stresses of life.

Nicola Lee Housing Patch Manager, Nottingham City Homes

nicola.lee@nottinghamcityhomes.org.uk

0115 883 3803 or 07949 250088

www.nottinghamcityhomes.org.uk

Twitter: @nottmcityhomes

Provide social housing throughout the City to families, vulnerable people. Support residents with tenancy issues and refer for support.

Give people affordable quality homes so they can reach their full potential and improve their lives.

Ruth Lewis-Jones Learning Producer, New Art Exchange

ruth@nae.org.uk 0115 924 8630

www.nae.org.uk

Twitter: @newartexchange Instagram: @New_art_exchange

NAE is a contemporary arts space in the heart of inner city Nottingham that celebrates the region's cultural diversity.

Develop the potential of young people through a creative learning programme that will be launched later in 2019

Paul Liptrot Midlands Maker Challenge Co-ordinator,

Derby Museums

Paul2@derbymuseums.org 01332 640908

The Midlands Maker Challenge is an innovative programme driven by the new Museum of Making at Derby Silk Mill's vision to empower a new generation of young people (14-25) to become creators, makers and innovators.

Esme Macauley Communications & Marketing

Nottingham City Council

esme.macauley@nottinghamcity.gov.uk 07949 254604

www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk

Twitter: @EsmeMacauley

We are part of the team that delivers the communications and marketing work of Nottingham City Council.

Everyone wants Nottingham people to live their best lives, as part of great communities with access to everything the city has to offer.

Rosemary MacLennan Saturday Art Club Coordinator and Tutor, Nottingham Trent University

rosemary.maclennan@ntu.ac.uk 07880 273629

www.ntuoutreach.com/Saturday-art-club/

Twitter: @NTUOutreach Instagram: @ntusat_artclub

Run a year programme of art and design sessions for 13-16 year olds, as part of Widening Participation agenda.

Develop career aspirations, social skills, confidence, practical art making abilities and critical thinking.

Sandeep Mahal Director, Nottingham UNESCO City of Literature

sandeep@nottmcityoflit.org 07903 342979

www.nottinghamcityofliterature.com

Twitter: @NottmCityOfLit Instagram: @nottmcityoflit

We're dedicated to building a better world with words, using reading/writing to transform lives and create opportunities in Nottingham and beyond.

We want to nurture talent, champion our literary city internationally and inspire more Nottingham residents to read, write and enjoy words.

Cathy Mahmood Creative Nottingham North Coordinator,

Rebalancing the Outer Estates Foundation & ChalleNGe Manager,

Nottingham's Cultural Education Partnership (from 25 Feb '19)

cathy.mahmood@rebalancingouterestates.com 07808 165209

www.creativenottinghamnorth.com

Twitter: @CreativeNNorth

We develop connections between communities in Aspley, Basford, Bestwood, Bilborough, Bulwell and Bulwell Forest and artists/arts organisations to activate local projects, festivals and opportunities.

Developing wellbeing and creative confidence, advocating for local creative hubs and helping people turn their ideas into action.

Helen Mansfield Relationship Manager – Children, Young

People and Learning (Midlands) Arts Council England

Helen.Mansfield@artscouncil.org.uk 0161 934 4317

www.artscouncil.org.uk Twitter: @ace_national

Between 2018 and 2022 we will invest £1.45 billion from Government, and an estimated £860 million from the National Lottery to support arts and culture across England. We support activities across the arts, museums and libraries – from theatre to digital art, reading to dance, music to literature, and crafts to collections.

We believe that great art and culture inspires us, brings us together and teaches us about ourselves and the world around us. In short, it makes life better.

Sarah Manton Artist, Curious Nottingham Ltd

hello@curiousnottingham.co.uk 07969 351658

www.curiousnottingham.co.uk

Twitter: @curiousnottm Instagram: @curiousnottm

We are artists based at Sneinton Market Avenues, offering arts and crafts workshops at our studios and beyond!

To share our artistic knowledge and experience to inspire creativity in others for their enjoyment and personal development.

Claire McCurdy Community Engagement Officer,
Nottingham Together
claire.mccurdy@nottinghamcity.gov.uk
0115 876 1110 or 07932 946996
Twitter: @NottmTogClaire

We work with individuals and groups that support the community to improve cohesion and quality of life.

Because people have more in common than divides them, and communities who work together achieve lasting positive change.

Gareth Morgan Dramaturg, Writer and Nottingham Roosevelt Scholar. Literary Associate Artist at Nottingham Playhouse
gm6016@gmail.com

Natelle Morgan-Brown Communities Programmer,
Nottingham Contemporary
Natelle@nottinghamcontemporary.org 0115 948 9785
www.nottinghamcontemporary.org
Twitter: @NB_NottmContemp

Offer a varied programme of free events with/for people 65+, or who identify as BAME or who've experienced socio-economic disadvantage.

Art must be for everyone, for free!

Vanessa Oxspring Independent consultant, project manager, community-producer and dance practitioner Vcreate vanessa@vcreate.uk 07970 807063
www.vcreate.uk
Twitter: @Vanessaoxspring Instagram: @Vanessaoxspring

Vcreate designs, produces and delivers exceptional arts projects and experiences locally, nationally and UK wide. We work with schools, arts professionals and cultural partners to bring high quality dance and arts experiences to communities.

Create work with and for local communities. Work with partners to develop new and responsive arts opportunities for a wide range of audiences and people to participate. Support local artists to develop strong, sustainable and diverse business models.

James Parkinson Head of Business and Development
Lakeside, University of Nottingham james.parkinson@nottingham.ac.uk
www.lakesidearts.org.uk
Twitter: @Parkinson_JCP

Lakeside delivers the University of Nottingham's public arts and heritage programme

Marc Petrucci Service Manager, Nottingham City Council
marc.petrucci@nottinghamcity.gov.uk

We support nearly 40 community centre mainly operated by volunteers, to provide events and services to local people
To be able to extend the network of events held in our centres

Rich Pickford Knowledge Exchange and Impact Officer, Nottingham Civic Exchange - NTU
richard.pickford@ntu.ac.uk 0115 8482266 www.ntu.ac.uk/nce Twitter: @nottscivicex @pickfordrich

We are NTU's place based think tank maximising research and civic activity for the place we are based. We draw together research expertise to tackle socio-economic challenges and aim to work with people to share and build on their lived experience.

We believe the university can make a positive impact on its place and that all the work we do should have mutual benefit built into it. We want to inform and improve local and national policy agendas to improve the lives of everyone.

Daniel Pikett Team Leader Base 51
d.pikett@base51.org.uk 0115 9525040

Belinda Poon Children's venue co-ordinator; Art/Craft Teacher BCreative + Member of Lady Bay Arts Trail Committee
andy.belinda@gmail.com 07918 836883
www.bcreative-art.org

I co-ordinate, run and select artists to run workshops for children during the Arts trail weekend. My own business: Run after school art/craft sessions including the Arts Award scheme.

I'd like to find out more, share good practice and encourage more creative opportunities across Nottingham.

Tracey Radford Creative Producer, Unanima Theatre
office.unanima@gmail.com 07713 498 708
unanima-theatre.co.uk

Twitter: @unanimatheatre Instagram: Unanima Theatre

Unanima is a professionally led company of adults with intellectual disabilities who create theatre designed to challenge audiences to think differently about learning disability and autism.
Promote equality. Change the world.

Rachel Ramchurn Artist, Freelance (Project: A Pocketful of Treasure) rachelclementine@gmail.com 07960 613786 www.apocketfuloftreasure.wordpress.com
Twitter: @rararamchurn and @Full_Treasure

Devise and deliver participant led projects with diverse community groups to create digitally interactive artworks that tell their stories of humanity.

Encourage audiences to recognise the common themes of humanity that unite us all. Challenge pre-conceived ideas and assumptions.

Beverley Rankin Housing Patch Manager
Nottingham City Homes
beverley.rankin@nottinghamcityhomes.org.uk 07903 342895

I manage Nottm City Homes Tenants in the New Highbury Road and Bulwell areas; many tenants have complex needs and are involved in high end Anti-Social Behaviour which may be causing them to breach their tenancy agreement and outcome is they may lose their home. I work with a realm of partner Agencies such as police, Enforcement Officers, Social Services, schools, to investigate and resolve issues which are having an impact on the area and neighbours and enforcement action will always be considered where there are breaches in tenancy conditions.
I'm looking for ideas and opportunities that are available within the community that provides opportunities for disadvantaged and excluded families who have an interest in Art and would like to explore further.

Jon Rea Engagement and Participation Lead
Nottingham City Council
jon.rea@nottinghamcity.gov.uk 07957 202333
www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk
Twitter: @MyNottingham @JonReaBlidworth

I try to empower children, young people and families to shape the future of the city through shared decision-making Because meaningful citizen participation is one of the keys to a more democratic, pluralist, fair and sustainable future for all.

Michelle Reader Artist, Michelle Reader Recycled Sculpture
m@michelle-reader.co.uk 07813 994539
www.michelle-reader.co.uk
Twitter: @Michelle3duk Instagram: Michelle3duk

Make sculptures from recycled materials (commissions and hires) and run eco art workshops at schools, galleries/museums and events.
Encourage people to think about the creative potential of waste materials and use art to engage and educate.

Siobhan Reilley Project Development Manager
Nottingham City Homes
siobhan.reilly@nottinghamcityhomes.org.uk

Clare Routledge Age Friendly Nottingham Support Officer,
Nottingham City Council
clare.routledge@nottinghamcity.gov.uk 0115 876 3514
www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk

AFN is a strategic partnership delivering the AFN Action Plan and implementing the Nottingham Citizen's Older People's Charter.
AFN works to ensure citizens aged 50+ stay connected and live independent, healthy, active lives, with support provided when required.

Kev Ryan Director, Charnwood Arts
kevr@charnwoodarts.com 01509 822558
www.charnwoodarts.com

An independent community arts and media organisation based in the Borough of Charnwood, Leicestershire

Katie Sandoval Art and Photography Teacher katiesandovaluk@yahoo.co.uk 07961185636
I have been teaching art & photography for the last 10 years and have recently relocated to Nottingham. I am interested in developing art based / community based projects as well as developing my own art practise.
To inspire people to be creative.

Sharon Scaniglia Arts Programme Manager, Radford Care Group
sharon.scaniglia@radfordcaregroup.org.uk 0115 9786133
www.radfordcare.org.uk
Twitter: @radfordcare

Radford is a day care facility for older people some with dementia. Addressing loneliness, isolation and complex health needs. Supporting carers and networks
Addressing health and wellbeing by lessening isolation and loneliness; Older people more visible; More intergenerational projects

Suki Shergill Neighbourhood Development Officer
Nottingham City Council
sukhbir.shergill@nottinghamcity.gov.uk 0115 8833728 www.nottinghamcitycouncil.gov.uk
Twitter: @mybulwell

The Neighbourhoods Development Officers role is to work with citizens and community groups to actively shape services and their neighbourhood.
To create sustainable, resilient communities where people want to work and live, now and in the future.

Megan Shore
Festival Producer, Ignite! Festival of Science and Curiosity megan@ignitefutures.org.uk 07794432370
www.nottsfosac.co.uk
Twitter: @NottsFOSAC @ShoreMegan
Instagram: @nottinghamfosac

I run the Nottingham Festival of Science and Curiosity and deliver creative science projects with young people across Nottingham.
Want to give children the confidence to express their curiosity, enjoy science and participate in cultural life.

Riquan Simms and Simi Singh Photographers / filmmakers
Bulwell Academy students
Instagram: @dripvisuals

Konstantina Skalionta Dance Artist, Konstantina Skalionta Dance Projects
konstantina.skalionta@gmail.com
www.skalionta.com
Twitter: @KSkalionta Instagram: @skalionta_dance

I create performances that are engaging, thought provoking. I share autobiographical stories and through these I seek to connect with others.

Keith Spriggs Associate Professor (Gene Regulation/Pharmacy)
School of Pharmacy, University of Nottingham keith.spriggs@nottingham.ac.uk

Teach pharmacy students. Cancer research. African plant research.
CG animation & games in teaching and public information.
Well informed people make better decisions. Engaged people are more likely to be well informed. Collaboration.

Hannah Stoddart Arts Project Coordinator
Radford Care Group - Artspeak
hannah.stoddart@radfordcaregroup.org.uk 0115 9786133
www.radfordcaregroup.org.uk

Programme activities and events across Nottingham in community and cultural venues to engage people aged 60+ in the arts.
To empower and inspire people aged 60+, using art as the key to prevent isolation and loneliness.

Rebecca Streets Producer - Public Programmes Dance4
rebecca@dance4.co.uk 0115 9242016
www.dance4.co.uk
Twitter: @dance_4 Instagram: @Wearedance4

Dance4 supports professional artists working in contemporary dance to research and create professional choreography. My role connects dancers/choreographers to communities and participants locally. With the core aim of developing new contemporary dance work, Dance4 strives to engage with audiences locally, nationally and internationally.

Kieren Thompson Director, Helping Kids Achieve helpingkidsachieve1@gmail.com 07562 303846
www.helpingkidsachieve.org.uk

Provide after school programmes for young people in the Bulwell area. To get young people off the streets and get them to play in a safe environment, away from anti-social behaviour and knife crime.

Jessica Tickell Regional Programme Manager, East Midlands
First Story
jesstickell@gmail.com 07535 787771
www.firststory.org.uk
Twitter: @firststory @jesstickell

First Story delivers long-term creative writing residencies in secondary schools serving low-income communities, led by professional writers. First Story programmes foster confidence, creativity and writing skills. They empower young people to tell their own stories through writing.

Lynne Towle Engagement Officer Small Steps Big Changes (Nottingham Citycare)
lynne.towle@nhs.net 07973 903254
www.smallstepsbigchanges.org.uk
Twitter: @ncitycare_SSBC

Lottery Funded programme offering every child aged 0-3 years and living in four wards of Nottingham, support through a Family Mentor and attending early intervention groups.
Networking meeting other partners in Children's services

Angela Warren Singing Facilitator, SongTime & Associate Artist, Unanima ange.warren@ntlworld.com 07981 885013
www.songtime.org.uk www.unanimatheatre.co.uk
Instagram: Unanima Theatre Facebook: Songtime

Songtime provides singing for wellbeing sessions which are dementia friendly.
We provide a safe space to be creative and find our voice.

Anna Wheelhouse Freelance Artist, Community Youth Worker and School Teacher Rise Learning Zone, Anna Wheelhouse Art, Area Inbetween
annawheelhouse@live.co.uk 07854 818151
www.annawheelhouse.co.uk www.riselearningzone.org
Instagram: @AnnaWheelhouse. @RiseLearningZone

I am a freelance artist and have worked with community groups, schools and youth centres in Nottingham delivering art workshops for several years. I am also the head of Art at Rise Learning Zone which is an alternative provision focusing on Nurturing young people and uses therapeutic practice within an educational setting.

I am interested in the drives to deliver more arts across the north Nottinghamshire area. As a workshop coordinator I am interested in how we can fund drives for artwork in the community and get the community members involved in order for them to take pride in their areas. (I work as a Street Artist so would be very interested in doing up areas that are unsightly with young people).

David Wilkinson Regional Manager, Midlands Institute of Physics
david.wilkinson@iop.org 07919 035913
www.iop.org
Twitter: @IOPMidlands

The IOP is the professional and learned society for UK physics, inspiring people to develop their knowledge, understanding and enjoyment of physics.
We believe that every member of society should be able to engage with and value physics at any level.

Rachel Williams Library Usage & Advocacy Lead Nottingham City Libraries
rachel.williams@nottinghamcity.gov.uk 0115 9152845 www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/libraries
Twitter: @readingnottm Instagram: @nottmlibraries

Libraries are accessible community spaces where people can come to learn, relax, meet others and expand their imagination.
Creating better futures by helping people explore cultural, social, economic and learning opportunities.

Elaine Williamson Participation Manager, Nottingham Playhouse
elainew@nottinghamplayhouse.co.uk 0115 873 6248
www.nottinghamplayhouse.co.uk
Twitter: @nottmplayhouse

Produce a bold and exciting programme of participatory work for everyone from the age of 18 months - 55yrs+
To encourage our full community to engage with the opportunities we offer.

Thank you for coming to the Arts Partnership Lab Wed 13 February 2019 at Nottingham Contemporary organised by Creative Nottingham North (Rebalancing the Outer Estates Foundation)

in partnership with:

Bulwell Arts Festival
Creative Quarter Nottingham
Ignite! & Nottingham Festival of Science and Curiosity
Nottingham Contemporary
Nottingham Together
UK Young Artists